Both of these young ladies have been re-elected for another term, which is unmistakable evidence that their services have given entire satisfaction.

Not a Georgian.

The Advertiser publishes another interesting letter from "Uncle Iv" Morgan this week. Who does not enjoy reading whatever he writes? He makes reference to himself as being a citizen of Georgia? This we can not concede, for we earnestly hope and expect that he will return to his old county and spend his last days among his life-long friends, who love him more than the newly acquired friends of his adopted home, however much they may love him. We only think of "Uncle Iv" as being a South Carolinian who is sojourning for a season in the state to the south of us.

Handsome Bible Presented.

Mrs. Fannie Tompkins has a class of girls in the Baptist Sunday school. The first being $10.00 in donations, the first being $10.00 in church building last fall, and on Sunday morning this class of 16 girls presented through Mr. A. S. Tompkins, a handsome Bible to the church, which was received in behalf of the church by the pastor Dr. Jones.

This gift is a proof of the great value of systematic giving even in small amounts, and of a definite purpose for the giving. The following are the names of the members of this enterprising class: Gladys Lyon, Ella Bell Scurry, Willie Peak, Helen Dorn, Mattie Sue Holson, Ouida Pattison, Emmie and Alma DeLoach, Eleanor Kinnaird, Grace Tompkins, Amelia Hudgens, Mary Dorn, Ellen Quarles, Nellie Paul, Brook Jones.

A Sad Bereavement.

All of Edgefield was saddened by the passing away on Saturday last of the precious little baby, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nixon. Hattie Nixon was just three years old in February, just at that most bewitching age, when they are so a part of the mother and father. So dependent, and yet beginning to say and do the little things that are so winsome.

This dear little girl had been in Edgefield enough to make everybody who knew her, love her and when her illness was announced about ten days before her death, many awaited anxiously the news of her improvement—but this hope was never realized and at a little after noon on Saturday her spirit passed out into that more congenial land where children are so loved.

Little Hattie has gone to Jesus, who took little children in his arms and blessed them in this world, and said, "We must be like them if we wished to see the kingdom of heaven."

The little body was laid to rest in Willow brook cemetery here on Sunday morning, the funeral service being conducted at the grave by Dr. E. P. Jones. Many loving friends and relatives followed the little body to its last resting place, and many flowers covered the casket. May the comfort of a higher power be bestowed on the mother and father in their bereavement.

Mercerized Voiles, Rice Cloth, and wash silk. Just received at Smith-Marsh Co.

year of excellent work will no doubt be the outcome. About a month ago Prof. W. F. Scott, the superintendent was unanimously re-elected, and that he will again be the head of this institution of which the town is justly proud, has brought great pleasure to the entire community. The New Century Club met with Mrs. James White on Wednesday afternoon, the subject being "Social hygiene." Before this was taken up a short business session was had and the delegate to the "Home economic demonstration" at Winthrop college this summer will be Miss Clara Sawyer, alternate, Mrs. James White. Several good selections upon the subject for the afternoon were given by the members and music was enjoyed. During the social hour several invited guests came the two honor guests being Misses Pauline Lewis and Nina Ouzts. Pink heart shaped cards were given each and on these were written good wishes for the brides-elect. Much mirth was produced when some of these were read, for several puns were made on the names. The hostess presented the honor guests with blooming pot plants. All were invited into the dining room where a sweet course was served.

The home of Mr. W. A. Mobley was struck by lightning on Thursday afternoon and was burned.

When the bolt entered where the bolt entered were torn off. Mrs. Mobley was nearly and was stunned, but soon recovered from the shock. The current was so heavy as to jar some of the china from the sideboard.

Johnston has occasion to be proud of the young men and maidens at college for splendid reports come of their year's work and honors given. At Wofford college Mr. Robert Kenny has been chosen class prophet and graduates with honors. Mrs. F. M. Boyd entertained a few friends and relatives with a delightful dining on Wednesday.

The social festivities of the week ended with the luncheon of Saturday morning given by Miss Emma Bouknight at her attractive home near town. Those present were the members of the Kill Kare club and the honorees were Miss Elise Crouch one of the members, and Misses Pauline Lewis and Nina Ouzts. Music and conversation occupied the time for awhile when there was an intercession caused by the arrival of a telegraph messenger, who bore a number of telegrams. These were all for the honorees and proved to be heralds of much happiness and joy when read aloud. After these were finished the notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march began and a dear little bride, little Miss Smith marched in holding a huge wedding bouquet which was really three in one, and one was given each of the brides-elect. Miss Crouch was presented with a piece of embroidered lingerie. Later all were invited to the dining room where an elaborate several course luncheon was served. The table was beautifully arranged and old time silver and china graced the board. The guests all lingered with their hostess, so pleasant had she been, and so happy an occasion this had been.

The annual picnic of the Harmony school was held on Friday and a very happy day was spent by pupils, parents and friends. For several years it has been the custom to close the school with a picnic and none has been more enjoyable than this, and all who received invitations to join with these were present for an invitation here always appeals to one for seldom does one find such kindness and hospitality as abounds in this community.

The school has just closed a most successful year the principal being Prof. Fred G. Long, with Miss Lizzie Warren 1st assistant and Miss Sadie Long 2nd assistant.

On June 11, the members of the W. C. T. U. will join with the other unions and go to the County Home the occasion being in commemoration of Jennie Cassedy's birthday. It is hoped that each will remember to bring flowers which lovely thought of giving flowers to the sick and lonely was well carried out by her. A picnic dinner will be spread for the inmates of the Home.

Prof. and Mrs. Eric Hardy are spending awhile in the home of their father, Mr. J. W. Hardy. Prof Hardy during the past year was Dean of Bessie Tift college, Ga., but has resigned this to take a position in Tennessee.
